

DETROIT SOCIETY OF WOMEN PAINTERS & SCULPTORS

FEBRUARY, 2017

VOL. 13

NO. 2

ESTABLISHED 1903

President's Message:

Well, we thought it was going to be nail-biter, but we shouldn't have worried. Just hours before the deadline, Tracy Irwin received a flood of artist entries. (Although several more came in because of the e-mail blast.) We had 43 artists enter with 80 pieces in all. This time we also received several stunning sculptures. Tracy Irwin and Deb Benedict, as exhibit chairs, managed to prevail, despite many changes and setbacks, to produce a splendid show.

We did have one disappointment; due to unforeseen circumstances, Dominic Pangborn was unable to jury the artwork. Instead, Amy Corle, the Curator of Education and Public Engagement for the Museum of Contemporary Art in Detroit, was able to help us out (thus the artists were not kept waiting for the decisions. Dominic selected the award winners after viewing the accepted work.

The excellent news is that DSWPS will be included in a New York Times article on MOCAD and the exhibits of its winter season. The exhibits include: The Architectural Imagination, Detroit Affinities: Adriana Martinez, Five Rings: Dana Hoey and HOME: Detroit Society of Women Painters and Sculptors.

Saturday, February 11, 2017 is a shared reception for all 4 exhibitions 3 - 4 pm. DSWPS will have its own reception and award event in the Mike Kelley's Mobile Homestead.

We can continue to party there or we can attend the MOCAD Curator's talk and reception in the main building, 4 - 6 pm.

MOCAD's Opening Reception for the general public is 6 - 9 pm (the Mobile Homestead will continue to be open until 9 pm as well).

At 9 - 10 pm MOCAD will have a performance by The Black Opera. Admission to ALL the festivities before 9 pm is free.

DSWPS will have beverages for our reception 3 - 4 pm. If you would like to contribute a treat to the DSWPS reception, please contact Tracy Irwin, so she can coordinate our reception. See you there.

Words to remember:

*Blessings come in many ways
but the nicest come as Friends*

• Lori Zurvalec and Julie Strabel have recently developed a wonderful art program for Detroit youth: Arts Ministry to Detroit Children. Julie will be teaching Saturday Art Classes Jan. 21 - Feb. 25; and April 1 - May 6. Supplies and transportation are being supplied by the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church where the classes are held. The list of supplies that Julie needs is quite extensive. They had thought that donations of actual art supplies would be a good way for DSWPS members to contribute to this exceptional program. However, it's very difficult to work with a hodge podge of supplies. Monetary donations are better, as Julie can purchase what is needed, when it's needed. Checks can be made out to the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church with "Arts Ministry" in the memo line.

For more information about the program, contact Lori or Julie.
