

DETROIT SOCIETY OF WOMEN PAINTERS & SCULPTORS

MARCH, 2018

VOL. 18

NO. 3

ESTABLISHED 1903

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

I think Lillian Messer would be surprised to know how her friendly get-togethers have evolved. From a small group of 15 women, DSWPS has grown to nearly 150 members, and our get-togethers are still friendly!

At our February meeting we had a lively discussion about updating aspects of the club. I would recommend that if you are interested in having your voice heard by the membership, you should definitely attend the general meetings. What a hoot! Highlights follow:

- We are looking into joining the Scarab Club (something the early 20th century membership declined)
- Should we use WSU, as well as DYC and Madonna for meetings/presentations and shows? The 333 Midland Highland Park show will be members only, no size limitations and 3 entries per artist.
- Although we want to update our entry/jury system to make it easier on those doing the pre-show tasks we don't want to end the physical jury take-in excitement. Like you, I love seeing EVERYONE'S work. However the members agree it is time to go 'digital entry' Don't panic – the plan is to go s-l-o-w-l-y with lots of tutorials and member assistance.

After the jury process for our new exhibition, many of our members were seriously dismayed that everyone's work was not accepted. Although we want everyone to be happy we know that not everyone will be accepted. To our newer members I want to say that we have all experienced non-acceptance to many shows. This does not deter us. We are strong. Remember: Vincent Van Gogh was never juried into any of the art shows of his time and he never sold a single piece of his art.

Our presenter Clara DeGalan, was met with an interested and positive audience. I am so proud to be a part of DSWPS!

I am happy to announce that Maria Brow has been commissioned by Madonna Univ. to create a mural for the campus. Let us know the date of the unveiling Maria!

Thanks to Joan Smykowski and Eriica Chappuis for coordinating "Persistence". I hope to see everyone at the opening reception on March 1st!
